On-Going Internship Program for Area College Students (73.2080(c)(2)(v)).

Iowa Western Community College and KIWR have an internship program for its media studies department students. The station welcomes students from area universities and colleges who are motivated and excited about expanding their knowledge and hands-on experience in a vibrant broadcasting environment. Students must be enrolled in a program related to the broadcasting industry, and their internship must be endorsed, supported, and constantly monitored by the sponsoring university. Students are rewarded with course credit hours upon completion of the semester-long program. Internship periods include Fall and Spring each year. During the period covered by this report, KIWR-FM has had eight (8) student interns involved in this program – four (4) in the Fall of 2019, and four (4) in the Spring of 2020.

(73.2080(c)(2)(iv)) Envisions – Development Disabilities Tour/Job Shadowing. September 16, 2019 – 10 individuals. This reflects September 1, 2019 through August 1, 2020, so technically we only had one tour during that time.

Anti-Harassment Training to Upper Level Management

Iowa Western's Human Resources Department conducts on-going anti-harassment training through an online portal. It provides in-depth information on harassment and different scenarios for a one-on-one interaction approach. Iowa Western's Human Resources Department also provides information on our harassment policies and procedures (see exhibit 1).

Exhibit 1

Anti-Harassment Policy 430.1

430.1 HARASSMENT. Adopted: March 2, 1998. Revised: September 3, 2001, October 22, 2012, June 17, 2013

It is the policy of the College to provide a working environment free of unlawful harassment. Discrimination of any type will not be condoned and appropriate disciplinary action will be taken in cases of policy violation. Any employee will be subject to disciplinary action for violation of this policy.

Harassment, which is unwelcome conduct, on the basis of disability, gender identity, age, race, color, creed, religion, marital status, sexual orientation, sex, pregnancy, genetic information, veteran status, AIDS/HIV status, citizenship, national origin is a violation of federal law, state law and city code/ordinances and violates the College policy. The term harassment as used in this Policy and Procedure means unlawful harassment.

Harassment occurs when 1) enduring the conduct is a condition of employment; or, 2) the conduct is severe or pervasive enough that a reasonable person would find the environment intimidating, hostile or abusive.

Sexual harassment refers to unwelcome conduct, which is personally offensive to a reasonable person, which fails to respect the rights of others and which interferes with or makes more difficult an employees work performance. The following are types of sexual harassment:

- A. Making unwelcome sexual advances or requests for sexual favors or other verbal, non-verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature a condition of the employee's employment;
- B. Creating, through severe or pervasive conduct, an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment by such conduct.

The following are examples of behavior which may result in sexual harassment:

- A. VERBAL: sexual innuendoes, suggestive comments, jokes of a sexual nature, sexual propositions and threats;
- B. NON-VERBAL: sexual suggestive objects or pictures, graphic commentaries, suggestive or insulting sounds, leering, whistling, or obscene gestures; or
- C. PHYSICAL: unwanted physical contact, including touching, pinching, brushing against the body of another, coerced sexual contact and/or assault.

Harassment may be overt or subtle. Some behavior which maybe appropriate in a social setting may not be appropriate in the work place. Harassment by an employee or non-employee will not be tolerated. All employees will be expected to comply with this policy and take appropriate measures to ensure that such conduct does not occur. Appropriate disciplinary action may be taken against any employee who violates this policy.
